

David Kalmusky, Producer

David Kalmusky is a multi-platinum producer, songwriter, session guitarist, mixer, and engineer based in Nashville, Tennessee. He is best known for his studio career amongst multi-genres and a discography including work with Shawn Mendes, Mötley Crüe, Justin Bieber, Carrie Underwood, Journey, Mickey Guyton, Meghan Trainor, John Legend, Keith Urban, Parmalee, Tenille Townes, and many others.

Born in Canada, Kalmusky took after his father Kenny Kalmusky (an original member of the Hawks with Levon Helm) as the third generation musician in the family. Kenny went on to make records at Bearsville Studios in Woodstock, NY and Nashville, quickly becoming a prolific session player with a wide array of notable names such as Ian & Sylvia, Todd Rundgren, Jerry Reed, Cowboy Jack Clements.

At the age of sixteen, Kalmusky began touring full-time, and by 2012 he moved to Nashville to co-design and build “Addiction Sound Studios” with Jonathan Cain (Journey, The Baby’s, Bed English) and Engineer Chris Huston (Led Zeppelin, The Who).

Since then, Kalmusky’s chart-topping discography includes work on Shawn Mendes’ Handwritten in 2015, Carrie Underwood’s My Gift in 2020, The Metallica Blacklist in 2021, Keith Urban’s Nightfalls in 2022, Mickey Guyton’s (three-time grammy-nominated) Remember Her Name in 2022, and contributed to other projects by Parmalee, Dierks Bentley, Elle King, Nate Smith, Tenille Townes and many more. He has been Grammy, AMA, CCMA, ACM, JUNO, and CMA awarded and nominated with more than a dozen Billboard #1’s, 37 Billboard top 10’s, and over 8.4 billion streams and counting.
